

Fall 2003 Lecture Series

Atanarjuat/Fast Runner, Canadian Inuit film based on a family legend about the founding of the Igloodik community. Discussion led by Kati Dana and Erik Hansen. Wednesday, October 1, 7 PM, CNS.

Larry Millman, Translating the Inuit. Millman will introduce the reissue of his book of Inuit stories, Kayak Full of Ghosts, and talk about the process and issues of translating from a language and culture in direct contrast to Western ideas. Friday, October 3, 7 PM, CNS

Celebrate the North with Us!

Festivities at the Center on October 4, 2003, 1-3 PM

Tours of the Center

Nature walks to Bear Swamp

Dedication of our inuksuk sculpture.

Larry Millman, Arctic wanderer and consummate mycologist will lead daylong mushroom workshops. $35 payable to Larry Millman. Register with north@sterlingcollege.edu. Saturday and Sunday, October 4 and 5, 9-3, CNS

Steven Cox, archaeologist with the Maine State Museum, and leader of the Bird Cove archaeological field school, "Investigating the origins of Eskimo adaptations in Newfoundland-Labrador". Wednesday, October 15, 2003, 7 PM, CNS

Scandinavian Film and Book Discussion series, co-sponsored with Vermont Council on the Humanities, Center for Northern Studies, Wolcott Library, Sterling Library, and Sterling College. Books and films available in the sponsoring libraries. Help from the Freeman Foundation.

A children's classic by Nobel-prize winning Swedish author, Selma Lagerlof, The Wonderful Adventures of Nils, takes us by goose the length and breadth of Sweden. Pat Stuart of Northfield will lead the discussion. Wednesday, October 8, 7 PM, Wolcott Community Library.

Based on a thousand-year old Sámi legend, award-winning film Ofelaš/Pathfinder follows the adventures of Aigin as he leads dark invaders to their ultimate destruction. Kati Dana of the Center for Northern Studies will introduce the film and lead the discussion. Wednesday, October 8, 7 PM, CNS

Following the lives of a tenant farm family in Central Finland, Beneath the North Star by Väinö Linna charts the history of the Finnish nation. Discussion led by Kati Dana. Wednesday, November 5, 7 PM, Wolcott Community Library.

The first ever film by and with Greenlandic Eskimos, Heart of Light is a wrenching drama about the identity crisis of Rasmus, who feels himself to be an outsider in the capital city, but does not have the skills to survive in the villages. Or does he? Discussion led by Erik Hansen of Sterling College. Wednesday, November 19, 7 PM, CNS.